Clerk’s Report: MOTION. To accept the minutes of the Retreat Meeting, Tuesday, July 21, 2020 as presented. VOTED/APPROVED.

Treasurer’s Report: Kathy Olsen, Treasurer, referred to the line in the budget report that had previously been e-mailed to the Board members, indicating that our accountant’s filing fees had been paid. Also, Bud Ferris commented on how our taxes were filed electronically. MOTION. To accept the FY21 Concerts Budget Report, Date 8-18-2020 and FY Budget Report, Date August 18, 2020 as presented. VOTED/APPROVED.

Music Director’s Report: One of Joe Marchio plans is singing sectionals on Zoom. When singing on Zoom, everyone else is muted, but you do get to sing along with the director, albeit by yourself. (We’ll receive our music on August 20th.) Joe will put up a movement a week on the web-site and will play our individual parts with us following along and attempting to sing on our own. Eventually, Donald will record the accompanying music for us.

The Cape Cod Symphony is on hold at least until January 1st but probably much later than that. ((The Boston Symphony has already cancelled through May 2021.)

The status of the Cape Chorales are essentially all the same: on hold until the Coronavirus is not an issue any longer.

Old Business: There will be a September 15th Chorale Board meeting.

New Business: Cindy O’Leary mentioned that we need to keep the website up to date with current news, our status and how patrons and potential future members could be put on our mailing list.

Joe Marchio will write up a message to our members along with an up-dated schedule and “soft appeal” for our patrons and Bill will place it on the web-site.

MOTION to adjourn. VOTED/APPROVED. 7:34.
